Life's too short to drive to work without a laugh. Thank god for Triple M Brisbane's The Big Breakfast with Margaux and Marto.

For a real dose of great yarns, big laughs and real music, delivered with an unmatched laconic style and a big-hearted passion for Brisbane, make Triple M's The Big Breakfast with Marto and Margaux your #1 choice. Stat. Loyal and local, these are the voices of Brisbane with the greatest backstories and breaking sport news delivered by their best mate Ben "Dobbo" Dobbin.

Catch them at sparrows, every weekday from 5:30am, on your phone via the Triple App or 104.5 on your FM radio. We can't guarantee they're politically correct – but we can guarantee... they're never boring!

GREG MARTIN

A true Brisbane breakfast radio legend who tells yarns like no other, Greg 'Marto' Martin is a former Wallabies hard man and handy tradie who has turned his passion for sport into a career, and he shares it with the people of Brisbane every morning. With nine caps for the Wallabies and 65 matches for his beloved Queensland Reds, Marto has battlescars most blokes only dream about, and in 2021, he notches up 20 years on Triple M brekkie!

MARGAUX PARKER

A Queenslander through and through, and loved by the Triple M audience, Margaux Parker's passion for Brisbane runs deep. She's a Logan local, mum of four, wife of former Bronco and Origin great Corey Parker and champion of charities and family. She holds her own anywhere, anytime.

Margaux made her debut with Triple M on Dead Set Legends on the weekends, before transitioning to her first permanent role with the Rush Hour in 2018. She then worked alongside Luke Bradnam on 92.5 Triple M's (formerly 92.5 Gold FM) number one drive show, before returning 'home' to Triple M Brisbane in September 2019 to join The Big Breakfast. She has stuff to say, and isn't scared to say it!
